Petitioner was then due to file replies in support of his motion for evidentiary hearing and his motion for leave to conduct discovery on October 29, 2015. See Order entered February 3, 2014 (ECF No. 122).

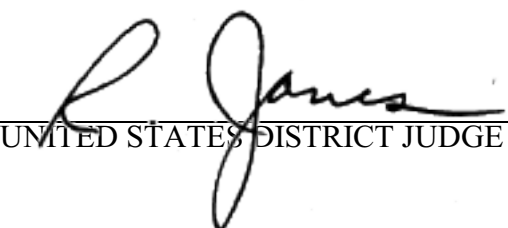

1 On October 26, 2015, petitioner filed a motion for extension of time (ECF No. 177), 2 requesting an extension of time to December 10, 2015, for his replies in support of his motion for 3 evidentiary hearing and motion for leave to conduct discovery (a 42-day extension of time).
4 Petitioner's counsel states that the extension of time is necessary because of her responsibilities in 5 other cases. Respondents' counsel does not oppose the motion for extension of time. The court 6 finds that petitioner's request for an extension of time is made in good faith and not solely for the 7 purpose of delay, and that there is good cause for the extension of time. The court will grant the 8 extension of time. However, the court will not look favorably on any motion to further extend these 9 deadlines.

10 Respondents' reply regarding their motion to dismiss (ECF No. 172) is 77 pages long. When 11 respondents filed that document, they also filed a motion for leave to file a reply of such length 12 (ECF No. 175). The court has examined the reply in support of the motion to dismiss and 13 determines that there is good cause for respondents to file a document of such length. The court will 14 grant the motion for leave to exceed the page limit.

15 IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that petitioner's Motion for Extension of Time (ECF No.
16 177) is GRANTED. Petitioner shall have until and including December 4, 2015, to file and serve a 17 reply in support of his motion for evidentiary hearing, and a reply in support of his motion for leave 18 to conduct discovery.

19 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that respondents' Motion to File [Pleading] in Excess of 20 Twenty Pages (ECF No. 175) is GRANTED. Respondents are granted leave of court to file their 21 77-page reply in support of their motion to dismiss. That document has already been filed. The 22 Clerk of the Court need take no further action in this regard.

23 Dated this 3rd day of November, 2015.
